Say Goodbye to Margaritaville, and Hello to the Fort Wayne Philharmonic

For the past ten years, SCCF has held Margaritaville, an annual fundraiser to supplement annual operating expenses. At 2 pm on November 2nd, 2014, the foundation will be kicking off the flip flops and shining up our best pair of loafers for a performance by the Fort Wayne Philharmonic in the new T. Furth Center for Performing Arts on the campus of Trine University. The orchestra performance is being held in coordination with Trine University, and will be the first of its kind in the Steuben County area. The benefit concert will honor the contributions and impact made by donors at the Steuben County Community Foundation, while perpetuating the work of the foundation through event sponsors and donations. Sponsorships with premier seating will be available from Memorial Day through Labor Day at SCCF. For more information contact Jennifer Danic.

F.I.S.T. News

Area Salary Survey

Charitable Advisors will be launching the northern Indiana Nonprofit Salary Survey on Tuesday, April 8, to provide key salary and benefits comparison information for nonprofits in 20 counties. They have extended the survey to include 20 positions that bridge across many nonprofit segments. The salary survey will have a "soft close" on May 8th, to allow time for organizations who have incomplete submissions and last minute participation.

All Steuben County nonprofit organizations will be contacted to participate. If you have questions or concerns, contact Bryan Orander.

5th Annual Bike 101 Lakes

The Arts and Humanities Fund is sponsoring the 5th Annual BIKE 101 LAKES event on May 10th, at the Coldwell Banker Roth Wehrly Graber Building. This year's event includes the opportunity to win a new road bike from Angola Cycling for early registrants, and all proceeds from the event support scholarships for local students interested in furthering their education in fine arts. Summer Art Camp Scholarships

The Arts and Humanities Fund is pleased to offer scholarships, funded by Bike 101 Lakes, for area middle and high school students to attend summer camps for music, art, dance, creative writing, photography, culinary, and film. Applications are available at the Steuben County Community Foundation or can be downloaded here. The deadline to apply is tomorrow!

Questa Foundation Scholars Program

The Questa Scholars Program is a loan available for moderate to middle income individuals and families that assists in filling the financial gap for secondary education. In the pilot year in Steuben County, four Questa Scholars will be selected: two individuals pursuing an associate degree and two individuals pursuing a bachelor degree. Deadline to apply is May 1st, 2014. For more information visit the Questa Foundation website, or view the full press release here.

Thank you for your continued support!

Donors make the dreams of Steuben County residents a reality.

Sincerely,
