$250,000 Match Campaign

In July the Steuben County Community Foundation board of directors announced a $250,000 matching gift campaign. They offered to match gifts to permanent endowments for nonprofit organizations serving Steuben County up to $25,000 per organization on a first-received first-matched basis. In four months our nonprofit community responded and we have received over $200,000 in gifts! If you wish to support one of your favorite nonprofits through building their permanent endowment please see the attached document for more information.

FIST Youth Attend Conference

From November 4th through the 6th, ten members of SCCF's youth pod, FIST (Forever Improving Steuben County Together), attended a conference put together by the Dekko Foundation in Warsaw, Indiana. They were joined by 175 other youth pod members from Alabama, Indiana, Iowa, and Minnesota to connect with one another and to learn more about the world of philanthropy. FIST members were pushed to meet new people and attended sessions on grantmaking, leadership, and many other topics. Members were able to bond with one another and other youth philanthropists while learning new skills that were brought back to benefit our community.

Year End Giving through the Steuben County Community Foundation

There are dozens of charitable causes you can support in Steuben County during this holiday season. You can do this directly, or through the Steuben County Community Foundation (click here for list of funds). We are here to help! Remember giving doesn't only mean writing a check or giving cash. You can donate appreciated stock, transfer assets from a IRA, gift life insurance, or donate property to SCCF and we will help get it to the nonprofit(s) of your choice. Every donor has unique circumstances. SCCF can work with your tax advisor to help find the best possible way for you to give to the deserving charities in our community. Contact Jennifer
