SCCF Annual Meeting

Angola, IN – The Steuben County Community Foundation (SCCF) held its 25th annual public meeting on Thursday July 20th. The SCCF board of directors and many friends of the foundation met at the new Community Humane Shelter of Steuben County. Two years ago the Community Humane Shelter received a $100,000 grant from SCCF to support construction of the new facility that is nearly finished.

Chair of the board Kevin Stoy provided an overview of SCCF's fiscal year which concluded on June 30. The organization manages just shy of $27 million dollars in assets enabling grants of over $1 million dollars to 180 charitable organizations in the past year.

Two new board members were elected, Adam Miller, Partner at Croxton and Roe and Jaime Walker, Director of Member Services at Steuben County REMC. New officers were elected for a two-year term: Jim Burns, chair; Randy White, vice-chair; Julie Troyer, secretary; and Doug Bomba, treasurer.
