In order to efficiently support our community's response to COVID-19, Steuben County Community Foundation (SCCF) and Steuben County United Way (SCUW) have created a funding partnership. With full support of both boards, the two organizations are pooling grant resources to provide a central point of funding for Steuben County nonprofits affected by COVID-19. A committee with members from both organizations will review grant applications and make joint recommendations for funding projects that alleviate the impact of the coronavirus on local residents. Information about grant guidelines and available funding will be shared soon at steubenfoundation.org/COVID19.

There has been a statewide initiative from Indiana United Ways and Lilly Endowment Inc. to provide funding for an economic response initiative to COVID-19. This SCCF and SCUW partnership is a collaborative effort made possible by multiple regional funders and many generous donors. Additional gifts can be made to the Steuben County Disaster Response Fund online at steubenfoundation.org or by mailing a check to SCCF at 1701 N. Wayne St, Angola, IN 46703 with a note in the memo.

Steuben County Community Foundation:

Through philanthropic services, strategic investments and community leadership, Steuben County Community Foundation helps people support the causes they care about, now and for generations to come. The Steuben County Community Foundation is a nonprofit organization with assets totaling more than $30 million. Our vision: Serving as a community leader and improving the quality of life by assessing, supporting and coordinating philanthropic giving and endowment building. Our mission: Connecting people who care with needs that matter to our community. For more information on the Foundation, visit its website at www.steubenfoundation.org.

Steuben County United Way:

The Steuben County United Way works collaboratively, effectively and strategically to fight for the health, education and financial stability for every person in Steuben County. By pooling resources from community members and local companies, we fund programs through more than 15 partner agencies as well as our own programming. Our goal is to 'Live United.' It's a credo. A mission. A goal. A constant reminder that when we reach out a hand to one, we influence the condition of all. We build the strength of our neighborhoods. We bolster the health of our communities. And we change the lives of those who walk by us every day. Visit our website for more information: www.unitedwaysteuben.org.
