

The Don and Eileen Fulton Nursing Scholarship

The Don and Eileen Fulton Nursing Scholarship was established by Eileen Fulton in memory of her husband. As proud parents of eight daughters who all attained college degrees, the Fultons wished to extend that advantage to other young people. This scholarship provides assistance to students who will be continuing their education through an accredited nursing program at any Indiana institution of higher education.

Don Fulton was a graduate of Angola High School and attended Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and Indiana University. He was instrumental in acquiring the National Guard Armory for Angola and was honored by local organizations for his many civic endeavors.

Eileen Fulton is a life-long resident of Steuben County. She graduated from Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in South Bend. When the youngest of her daughters started school, Eileen took the position as Steuben County Public Health Nurse. After five years she became the Angola School Nurse and continued in that capacity for 21 years. Eileen continues to serve her community through work with the Red Cross, Santa's Helpers and Court Appointed Advocate for Children (CASA). She was named the first Woman of the Year by the Herald Republican and received a SCCF Steuben Star Award in 2002.
